Deborah Yanz Painting
Artist Profile

Deborah was born in Sydney in 1955. Between 1972 – 1978, she travelled extensively through England, Europe, The Middle East, Asia & New Zealand, soaking up the Art and Culture of many of these places, which is often reflected in her career as an artisan.

She spent 12 solid years working as a graphic artist /designer. During this time she moved to Melbourne. Ten years ago she completed a short course in Wrought Iron, which ignited a passion for welding, leading to 2 broader certificate courses being achieved.

However, being a devoted mixed-media artist by nature, she loves the challenge of combining different mediums together. She has a passion for cultural, ethnic, symbolic, spiritual and eclectic elements of design, and is inspired by mythology, folklore and nature.
Deborah Yanz contd.
Deborah exhibited soft sculpture, interior design pieces, jewellery, artworks and art furniture for several years at her own gallery, Strange Angels in Highett. She has also exhibited at Driftwater Dream Gallery, Gary McEwans Gallery and The Bowerbird.
